Hi Judd – today it will just be me if I were to come by. My colleague from Sierra Leone will only be in town next Wednesday. Did you have a preference?

Also, I have another thing I would like to raise with you. CRS is pulling together a study trip to Central America focusing on food aid programs. We are looking at visiting Honduras and Nicaragua April 16-22. Please let me know if this is something you would be interested in and I can follow up with more details and/or pop by during 1PM window you mentioned below.

Thanks!

Hi Judd,

I hope all is well with you and I am sorry I wasn't able to close the loop for a meeting the last time I reached out. That said, if you have some time in the near future, I would appreciate a chance to come by and meet with you regarding Ag Approps and food aid. In particular, would you be available to meet either tomorrow (Wed, 3/8) anytime, next week Tuesday (3/14) from 9-2:30 or Wednesday (3/15) from 10-11 or 12:30-2:30? I will note that if we meet on Wednesday, I would also bring with me one of our field people from Sierra Leone who is heading up our Food for Education program there.

Thanks so much for considering this request!

Kind regards,

To Whom It May Concern:

Catholic Relief Services (CRS) is planning a congressional advocacy trip to Honduras and Nicaragua, April 16th – April 22nd, 2017. As part of an ongoing advocacy grant provided by the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, CRS has been given funds to conduct such advocacy trips to developing countries around the world. This will be the second congressional advocacy trip that CRS has led. The first trip was to Zambia in March of 2015. This grant from the Gates Foundation is not specific to this trip to Honduras and Nicaragua but intended to support overall trip costs.

The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation has not been involved with any of the planning or coordination of the trip, nor have they been associated with the recruiting or targeting efforts of the congressional participants. CRS has, wholly, been the entity who is leading and creating the trip itinerary, planning and coordinating the trip and recruiting congressional participation.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at 202-548-2943, x1.

Most respectfully,

Myron Meche

Question #1: Sponsor(s) of the trip (please list all sponsors): Catholic Relief Services (CRS herein) will be the sole sponsor of this trip.

Question # 2: Description of the trip:

CRS is organizing a six-day listening and learning trip to Honduras and Nicaragua. This trip will highlight the effectiveness of US-supported programs on the ground in Honduras and Nicaragua and allow the delegation to see firsthand some of the region's many challenges and success stories and learn about the roles that governments, donors, businesses and civil society are playing in Central America's development. The Honduras portion of the trip will emphasize CRS' efforts under the USDA-funded McGovern-Dole Food for Education and Child Nutrition (FFE) program, which provides primary school students with school lunches, and supports academic success with complementary activities like teacher training. The Nicaragua portion of the trip will emphasize CRS' efforts under the USDA-funded Food for Progress (FFPr) program, which is focusing on strengthening agricultural value chains for small producers. Over the six-day trip to Honduras and Nicaragua, participants will gain a deeper understanding of the development challenges in both countries, how the U.S. government responds to these challenges with development partners and what CRS has found to work in the fight against extreme poverty. CRS will be leading, organizing and executing all aspects related to this trip, including: planning, scheduling, communications and implementation.
